22 Per LR IA 6-1, the parties stipulate and agree as follows:

23 1. The parties' proposed joint pre-trial order is due June 7, 2023, per previous extensions of time stipulated to by the parties and ordered by the Court. See ECF No. 73.
24

2. The parties' proposed joint pre-trial order is largely complete, except Defendants require additional time to complete their proposed exhibit list, provide Plaintiffs with adequate time to identify objections and stipulations, and respond with objections to Plaintiffs' proposed exhibit list. Defendants respectfully request a four-week-extension of time for the parties to submit the joint pre-trial order, and Plaintiffs do not oppose Defendants' request and stipulate to Defendants' request. This is the seventh request to extend this deadline.

3. Thus, the parties respectfully request the Court to extend the parties' proposed joint pre-trial order from June 7, 2023 to July 7, 2023. This brief extension is made in good faith and not for the purpose of delay, and it will not interfere with other deadlines in this action.

Respectively submitted June 7, 2023
